John Carney Jr. and Tracey Quillen

Tracey Tatem Quillen, a special assistant in Washington to Senator Joseph R. Biden Jr., Democrat of Delaware, was married yesterday to John Charles Carney Jr., the deputy chief administrative officer for New Castle County, Del. The Rev. John Hopkins officiated at Holy Rosary Roman Catholic Church in Claymont, Del. The Rev. Ralph R. Johnson Jr., a Presbyterian minister, took part in the ceremony.

Ms. Quillen, 30, is keeping her name. She is a summa cum laude graduate of the University of Pennsylvania, where she was elected to Phi Beta Kappa. She is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Tatem Quillen of New Castle, Del.

Her father is Delaware's Secretary of State. Her mother, Marcia Quillen, now retired, was an assistant development director at the University of Delaware in Newark.

Mr. Carney, 37, graduated from Dartmouth College and received a master's degree in public administration from the University of Delaware. He is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Carney of Claymont.

His mother, Ann Carney, teaches French at Ursuline Academy, a private school in Wilmington. His father, now retired, was the director of Federal and ancillary programs in Claymont, for the Brandywine School District.

Focusing on efforts to help children succeed

It was under a trapdoor in the 3rd floor attic that once went through the ceiling to a 2nd floor room, but had long since been plastered over. Perhaps the kids imagined that slaves once used it to get to a sleeping area. Neither Tracey nor her mother remembered anything about it.
