Broom, Maria Anne	James M. Broom has erected (3'X6' flat) This Monument to his beloved Wife Maria Anne Broom "Her virtues will live forever for they are registered in Heaven. But as a tribute which is due to her memory let it be also engraved on this marble as it is on the heart of her husband. Maria excelled in those virtues which adorn her sex with heart overflowing with gratitude to God. She rejoiced in the practise of piety, the poor found in her a friend, she was ever ready to sooth (sic) the afflictions of the distressed and the virtues of every class who knew her delighted in her society. She was the handmaid of charity, the favourite of virtue and benevolence nurtured her with the milk of human kindness. In the prime of life, with every virtue ripened her soul was recalled to Him who gave it. For Heaven whose just rewards are sure knew Earth for her desserts too poor, and snatched her to the skies." Curtis, Jehu

To the Memory of (3'X6' brick base) 17
Jehu Curtis, Esq'r.
Late speaker of the Assembly,
A Judge of the Supreme Court,
Treasurer and Trustee of the Loan Office.
Who departed this life
Nov. 18, 1753 aged 61 years.
"If to be prudent in council,
Upright in judgement,
Faithful in trust,
Give value to the publick man
If to be sincere in friendship,
Affectionate to relations,
And kind to all around him
Make the private man amiable
Thy death O Curtis,
As a general loss
Long shall be lamented."
This epitaph was written by Dr. Benjamin Franklin.
